It's May already. Time is really flying by. I hope everyone has been able to get out and enjoy this beautiful spring weather. It's hard to complain about this rain, as we really need the moisture.

Steve has been out fishing every week and I'm getting hungry for a walleye fish fry. Soon! It's his turkey hunting week and so far nothing. Fingers crossed that he gets lucky.

I have a couple large boxes that are full of perennial plants just screaming to be planted. Hopefully Monday and Tuesday will be nice enough to be out there before they die in my house. I have about 25 pots with elephant ear bulbs started and so far 15 are showing signs of life.

So far I have a little over 2000 birds spoken for this coming season. Please don't wait too long to send me your renewal. I can increase our contract until June 30th. Remember last season??? We ran out of birds to sell and I don't want to have that happen again.

NEW FOR THE 2024-2025 SEASON. J&H will be charged an additional $3/bird for deliveries from our supplier March 15-31. That will be passed directly to you, in addition to the $3/bird release fee, if you hunt past that date. Sorry that will be $6/bird.

Hopefully this will be incentive to hunt before March 15th.

Please fill out the form with current information and include your e-mail to receive the newsletter. We do NOT give anyone your e-mail information.

PLEASE PAY WITH A CHECK OR CASH TO AVOID THE 3% CREDIT CARD FEE. We are trying so hard to keep all of our costs as low as possible to avoid raising fees any further, so we are good with a check.

Sales tax is 5 1/2 %.

And remember that by paying in full before June 1st you will receive 1 round of sporting clays for each 10 birds paid. Great way to keep your shooting skills sharp. Tickets will be kept at J&H to use when you come out to shoot. Just ask at the counter. Saves us a stamp, thank you.

Steve has all the hunting strips plowed and got a start on discing before this rainy streak. Now he waits! It is a little early to plant but he likes to get that finished before his 1st fishing trip which is the week of May 20th in Minn. Hopefully the fields dry out enough by then.

I am amazed at how many pheasants are still wandering around the fields and yard. Yippee!

Sporting Clay News

Our sporting clay courses are open year round. All pheasant members are given a $2 discount on each adult round of clays. Make sure you mention to whoever is behind the counter that you are a member so that you receive your discount.
